

It's critical that cell phone numbers be portable. As a small business owner, the expense of switching numbers when changing providers is very onerous. I respectfully urge you give to cell phone owners the right of portable numbers so that we may be allowed to retain our existing cellular phone numbers even when (and if) we should change cellular service providers. Thank you.